

CZECH STREETWORK ASSOCIATION – GOOD PRACTICE SEMINAR

„Working with the family of a low-threshold social services client“

Guests from abroad (Austria, the Netherlands, Poland and Slovakia) will present their experience with working with client's family. Czech social service providers will also present their practice. The aim of the seminar is to discuss the possibilities and limitations of low threshold social services, to identify good practice examples and to search for new ways of solution in the area of working with the client's family and to apply these to the Czech reality.

Date	7 th – 8 th of November 2013
Place	Evropský dům (European House), Jungmannova 24, Praha 1
Time	Thursday 10:00 – 17:00, Friday 10:00 – 16:00
Speakers	Helmut Steinkellner is a detached youth worker in Graz. He has experience in the field of work with homeless people, was almost three years chairman of the Austrian Streetworkers platform www.bast.at and is now manager of detached youth work – “Jugendstreetwork” in Graz/Austria. This Service has also a Contact point additional to the work in the streets in the very Center of Graz! Jugendstreetwork is a service of CARITAS. Marcin Drewniak is a social worker, works with children and youth for the CPES Parasol in Krakow. He is a vice president of the organization. Christina Mavridou works as a social street worker for Trajekt in Maastricht. She works on community work with teenagers and youth (age 12 to 25). Christina also works in the Centre for Youth and Family (educational support, age 12+) and she is a board member of NAPYN (National Association of Professional Youthworkers). Petra Hraňová is a psychologist and the head of Ulita (organization which runs community centre in Bratislava). She is the president of the Slovak Association of Low-Threshold Programmes for Children and Youth.

The seminar is supported from the European social fund, operational programme Human Resources and Employment, under the project “Build-up the Quality of Low Threshold Social Services through Sharing Good Practice in the Chosen EU Countries, no. CZ.1.04/5.1.01/77.00230“.

Build-up the Quality of Low Threshold Social Services through Sharing Good Practice in the Chosen EU Countries,